To facilitate sorting and account look-up, the name key is used for all program listing accounts in name order sequence. The name key is established either by direct data entry by an operator or automatically by the file maintenance program. An operator may key in any alphabetic or numeric characters. For example, an account has the name "7-11 store." For easier look-up, the office would like this to appear in the "S's" in any name order listing, such as the assessment roll. To accomplish this, the operator would key "SEVENELEVEN STORE" in the name key field.

On the other hand, if this field is left blank when establishing a new account, the file maintenance program would automatically generate a new name key. For example, "SMITH, JOHN" in the name field becomes "SMITH JOHN" in the name key field. "SMITH JOHN" (no comma) also becomes "SMITH JOHN" in the name key field.

Revised 04-13-94

The following codes have been established to identify the specific uses of improved commercial/industrial properties; and to identify properties owned by public utilities and railroads (both vacant and improved) and indicate their status as to operating or non-operating. These codes will be used to generate reports for the statewide commercial sales file and to aid in the reporting of utility/railroad operating property assessed values.

CODING INSTRUCTIONS

Codes should be keyed into the BPRUC (Bureau of Public Roads Use Codes) area of the data system. All five (5) digits must be entered for each code.

00010 - Residence on Commercial or Industrial Zoned Land:
It should be noted that properties requiring this code should have a Land Use Code "R" and a commercial or industrial Zoning Code (See Procedures 045/020/005 and 045/050/015)

Multiple use properties should be coded to reflect the primary use. Secondary use should be described in the literal data file.

Utility/Railroad

All properties owned by utility and railroad companies must be coded as either operating or non-operating property. This includes both vacant and improved properties. See Procedure 018/050/010 with regard to whether a property is operating or non-operating.
